

House Resolution No. 1798

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration to all those around her; and

Whereas, Allison M. Hile, a resident of St. Louis, Missouri, has been chosen as a recipient of the Faith and Freedom Award, a most impressive accolade to be bestowed upon her by the Missouri Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice on April 10, 2005, in St. Louis; and

Whereas, Allison Hile has distinguished herself as the Director of Information and Education at Hope Clinic for Women for the past twenty-five years; and

Whereas, Allison Hile earned a Master's degree in counseling psychology with an emphasis in human sexuality; and

Whereas, in addition, Allison Hile is certified as a sexuality educator by the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists; and

Whereas, Allison Hile and her family are active members of the Ethical Society of St. Louis, where she serves as a youth-group leader; and

Whereas, Allison Hile enjoys such hobbies and pastimes as gardening, traveling, scuba diving, beekeeping, and most importantly, spending time with her loved ones:

Whereas, Allison Hile can take pride in knowing she has consistently given more than one hundred percent to all those activities in which she has so generously and enthusiastically participated:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Allison Hile for her selection to receive the Faith and Freedom Award and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Allison M. Hile.
